KIRSTY MANNING, CNWD

How to be small but great

Cnwd is a small gourmet food business and smokery making top quality pates and smoked fish and run by Kirsty and her partner Scott Davis. The business is based just outside Carmarthen, somewhere between the Gower Peninsula and Pembrokeshire. For Kirsty and Scott, setting up Cnwd has been about returning to their roots. Scott learned everything he knows about pates and terrines from Marco Pierre White and has cooked with the likes of Gary Rhodes and Jean-George in London and New York.

Kirsty will share with us how to be small but great and how she manages to juggle running cnwd, Strawberry Shortcake Dining (catering company), Scott and a young family at the same time.

DILYS PRICE OBE, TOUCH TRUST

Going gently gets you nowhere

Dilys is an art and movement of dance specialist. She founded Touch Trust in 1996. The charity offers unique creative movement programmes for individuals with learning and other disabilities. The programmes use all the senses to establish a sense of worth and enjoyment.

For her 80th birthday last year Dilys celebrated by doing a sky dive to raise funds for Touch Trust. She will tell us how getting older never stops a super woman and how the people her charity helps keep her ever young.
